

Arachnion album Schw.

Description:

puff ball

Fruiting Body: fruiting body up to 1.5 cm diameter.

Spore Print Color: spore mass is grayish to olive brown. Spores: basidiospores 3.2-4.3 x 4.3-5.5 μm , with pedicel 1 μm , ellipsoid, smooth, brown.

Diagnostic macroscopic feature: small fragile white puffball containing grayish granules

Nutritional Mode: saprobe

Substrate: on ground

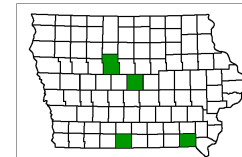

Habitat: lawns, gardens, other open places

Fruiting Season: summer

Kingdom: Fungi

Phylum: Basidiomycota

Order: Agaricales

Eastern United States probably common but overlooked

